

Evaluation Terminology Matching Game

Directions: Match the terms on the left with its corresponding Thanksgiving analogy on the right by writing the letter of the analogy next to the term. Some of the analogies have more than one possible answer; the challenge is to find the best answer.

this term...	is kind of like...
1. _____ summative evaluation	a. No turkey remains on the platter or plates after dinner.
2. _____ formative evaluation	b. The cook opens the oven every 20 minutes to check the internal temperature of the turkey.
3. _____ indicator	c. Mom weighs Dad before and after Thanksgiving to check for gain.
4. _____ assessment	d. When Mom was planning the menu, she estimated the meal would cost about $10 per person and there would be leftovers for a few days. Uncle Harry, however, ate so much that there weren't any leftovers, and the average cost ended up being about $12 per person.
5. _____ benchmarking	e. The male guests draw straws to determine which of them will dry dishes and which will watch football.
6. _____ needs assessment	f. Guests at the main dinner table are served wine with dinner, while guests at the side table are not. Later, both parties are asked if they are hungry enough for dessert.
7. _____ comparison group	g. After dinner, family and friends say the turkey recipe should be used again next fall.
8. _____ Pre- and post-test	h. Uncle Leo observes the kids as they set the table to determine whether they're doing it according to Miss Manners' standards.
9. _____ random assignment	i. Aunt Ethel tastes the potatoes as she is mashing them and keeps adjusting the amount of milk, salt, and pepper to make the potatoes taste good.
10. _____ evidence	j. Before Thanksgiving, Mom asks the guests if they will require vegetarian options.
11. _____ instrument	k. The turkey should turn a rich golden brown.
12. _____ accountability	l. A thermometer is used by the cook to check the internal temperature of the turkey.

Notes:

